Dear Sir, 67

It is now nearly a fortn since I was enabled to submit t Dewan Sahib a written represent on a matter of urgency regardin leave vacancy of the District S tendent of this District, and y hoped that orders would be passe it at the outside in a week. I r however, that up till now I have heard any thing.

The District Superintenden
Police who applied for the privi leave has availed of it from the 22nd ultimo and he has asked for an extension of it by a fortnight and the chance still continues.

If the Government should be so pleased as to allow me to act in the vacancy I like to have the full benefit of it by issue of - early orders.

I shall be most obliged if you can kindly arrange for me an interview with the Dewan Sahib to represent my prayer.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant
S. Sundara Rao
